PREP TIME: 40 mins | COOKING TIME: 20 mins

For the espetadas:

Combine chicken thighs, yoghurt, Cape Herb & Spice Portuguese Peri Peri Rub, sun-dried tomatoes, lemon juice, lemon zest and parsley in a large bowl.

Mix well, cover with plastic wrap and refrigerate.

Marinate in the fridge for at least two hours but for the most delicious results, leave in the fridge overnight.

Prepare a braai to medium-low heat.

Thread the chicken thighs onto long metal skewers.

Braai until cooked through, turning occasionally until beautifully browned all over.

If your braai has a lid, closing it will cook the chicken faster and more evenly.

Allow the chicken to rest for 5 minutes before serving.

For the coriander sauce:

Place all ingredients in a tall jug or jar.

Season with a little Cape Herb & Spice Salt.

Insert a stick blender and blitz until smooth and saucy.

Add a splash of ice cold water to help things blend well.

For the salad:

Combine all ingredients in a large bowl.

Season well with Cape Herb & Spice Greek Style Lemon & Herb Rub.

Drizzle with vinegar and olive oil.

Toss to mix everything together.

To serve:

Plate espetadas onto a platter and drizzle with a good amount of coriander sauce.

Serve alongside the chickpea salad and enjoy!
